

Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

SEPTEMBER 22, 1957

FA 8-5164

Seven

1919 BUSINESSWOMEN . . . National Business and Professional Women of Torrance entered this entry in a 1940 parade here. The car is a 1919 Oldsmobile of the same vintage as the organization formed in that year. The driver is William Barber and sitting with him in the front seat is Mrs. Bettina Miller. Other passengers are Mrs. Edna Weis and Miss Mary Nady. Some 39 years after the B and PW club was formed they are celebrating National Business Women's Week starting today. (Herald Photo)

Kilburn to Speak to PTA Council

Victor Kilburn, principal of the adult education of Torrance was the special guest of the Torrance PTA Council at the executive session held Wednesday at the Fern Cafeteria.

Kilburn outlined the Foundations of Family Living Series to be given at the Torrance High School auditorium by Dr. Barney Katz, clinical and child psychologist.

Dr. Katz, a noted author, will speak on the "Popular Misconceptions of Child Training," "Causes of Personality Maladjustment," "Modern Methods of Child Discipline," and "Helping Your Child Develop Successfully."

Announcement of the 33rd District Fall Conference to be held at Morningside High School in Inglewood, Sept. 30 at 9:30, and a Parent Teacher Information course to be held weekly at the Crenshaw school starting Sept. 19, at 9:30 was made by Mrs. D. D. Tuggle, Council president. The PTA course will be conducted by Mrs. L. O. Anderson, parent teacher information chairman of 33rd District.

Recipients of the two scholarships granted by the Torrance PTA Council are now registering in school according to Mrs. O. B. Willett, school education chairman.

Mrs. J. N. Oswell urged all mothers interested in singing to join the Mothersingers, and outlined the plans for the Christmas concert.

In further business, Mrs. Jack Irving was elected 3rd vice president, and Mrs. Eldon Morgan was ratified as finance and budget chairman. Mrs. Elmer Ecker, Mrs. Jack Irving and Mrs. Lloyd Van De Vort will be the representatives of the Torrance Council at the Los Angeles County Fair PTA booth on Sept. 29.

Instruction In Square Dancing Set

Since square dancing has become one of America's more popular pastimes, the response to beginners classes has been tremendous all over the country.

The Buds and Blooms Square Dance Group of Harbor City are now sponsoring a series of beginners classes that are held each Thursday night from 8 to 11 p.m. in the patio of the Hillcrest Nursery at 1517 W. Anaheim St., Harbor City.

As the beginners classes are sponsored by a different group each year, this will be the last chance this year to join one of the beginners classes in this area.

The final date for registration for the classes will be September 26. Dick Riggs of San Pedro is the caller and instructor for the beginners as well as the caller for the regular Saturday night dances held by the Buds and Blooms from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. each Saturday night in the nursery patio. The public is welcome to attend.

TODAY'S BUSINESSWOMAN . . . Mrs. Harold E. Massie is one of the typical businesswomen now holding down important jobs. Professional women are being honored across the nation this week. Mrs. Massie is secretary to Leonard Dalton, assistant principal at North High School. She is also a successful homemaker, caring for two youngsters at home. (Herald Photo)

Business Women's Week Celebrated

With the issuance of a city-wide proclamation, Torrance today joins with the nation in celebrating National Business Women's Week.

Local Business and Professional Women's Club members will meet Wednesday, 12:30, for a luncheon at the Palms as part of the week-long celebration.

Baby Shower Honors New Arrival

Mrs. Elwood J. McGuire, Mrs. Robert F. Dies and Mrs. Neal Brittin entertained at the home of Mrs. McGuire, 2615 Grand Summit Rd., Wednesday evening. The occasion was a surprise by shower honoring Mrs. Leo F. Salisbury.

Joining in the oh's and ah's while Mrs. Salisbury opened the many lovely baby gifts were the baby's grandmothers, Mrs. Fred Gruber, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Catherine B. Salisbury.

Other guests were Mmes. Lee Vollmer, Richard M. Shaw, W. K. Johnson, Joanne Hall, Gerda Winkler, Lois Duncan, Alice Gallegos, Ada Lideka, Keith McCann, William Bader, John DiMassa, Mary Block, Alice Dews, Robert Rozunko, James Willorford, Dolores Cota.

Also Mmes. Patrick Huskins, Jack Brennan, Fred Steinbroner, Jr., Roland Webber, Robert Delmon and Mrs. Salisbury's sister, Miss Vera Gruber, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Mel Prince, Reseda.

The theme for this year's week is "Salute to Women Who Work," and it is being promoted by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

The federation is dedicated to promoting the interests of business and professional women. At the 1956-57 biennial convention members pledged to work for:

"Equal rights amendment to the United States Constitution; jury service for women; equal pay for comparable work; uniform retirement age under the Social Security Act; increase in the amount of earned income permitted to a person receiving social security benefits; removal of and prevention of discrimination on the basis of age, sex or marital status in both government and industry with special emphasis on civil service career, and appointive positions in local, state and national government and women in the armed services."

Local business women heard Assistant City Manager Don Mansfield explain city government and its functions last Monday at the Alondra Club.

This was the regular dinner meeting of the group and President Betty Massie presided. Hilda Monroe was hostess chairman.

District Clubwomen to Meet for Conferences To Start New Season

Something of interest to every clubwoman through chairmanships of Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's Clubs, will be offered when units of the Santa Monica Bay, South Bay, Centinela Valley, and Torrance gather at conferences and district council meeting at the Neptunian Club of Manhattan Beach Wednesday at 9:45 a.m.

Plans were disclosed as more than 70 clubwomen met in the Torrance Woman's Club for a Marina District executive board meeting, hosted by the Torrance club's ways and means committee and executive board.

State chairman of literature and drama, Mrs. Oscar Driggs of Compton, will conduct a workshop in her field with Eleanor Doherty, former president of the Los Angeles Dis-

Activities Planned by RNA Camp

Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors of America met Tuesday night to plan for several special events during the Fall season. Deputy Elizabeth Gaston was a guest.

A card party, to which the public is invited, will be held on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Woman's Club on Engracia Ave. Usual games will be played, and prizes have been provided by Neighbor Margaret Stevens and her committee.

The South Bay District Picnic held recently at Torrance Park was such a success that plans were made to make this an annual affair. Over 100 members attended, and picnic games were enjoyed by all, especially the children who were all given prizes for their skill.

A group of Torrance members attended a Friends Night in San Pedro on Thursday. Members also attended a special meeting in Gardena on Monday, on invitation from this camp.

Torrance Camp will initiate a class of new members on Tuesday, Oct. 1, and a good attendance is requested by the Oracle.

It was voted to hold a Halloween Dance on the 5th Tuesday of October, for members and their friends, with a pot luck dinner preceding the dance.

Neighbors Schroeder, McCormick, Hoy and Duncan were reported ill.

Mary Koshak Honored as Top Recorder

Mary Koshak, a member and past officer of the Torrance chapter of the Women of the Moose, has been honored with the order of "Star Recorder," presented by the nationwide organization to outstanding officers of the Moose, Mary Platt, Public Relations chairman, announced this week.

The honor was bestowed on Mrs. Koshak, chapter recorder, during the term of Mrs. George Clay, at the recent national convention of the Loyal Order of the Moose in Spokane, Washington.

Mrs. Carter Dow was enrolled as a member of the Torrance Chapter of the Women of the Moose in a recent initiation ceremony, Peggy Peacock, recorder, announced.

Plans for the coming Halloween Dance will be discussed at the next meeting of the Torrance Women of the Moose to be held at the lodge hall, 1744 W. Carson St., on Wednesday at 8 p.m., according to Edna Harbison, senior regent. The annual dance will again be a joint chapter-lodge function, and will feature prizes to be awarded for the best and funniest costumes.

Parties Help Introduce New Members

Torrance Junior Woman's Club members are having fun getting acquainted with each other as well as with the 16 new members who will be initiated Wednesday.

This is not only a fun time, it also is a money making project. Each girl is fined for attending one of the Koffee Klatches. All the proceeds will go to the philanthropy chosen by the Marina District CFWC Junior Membership.

The first of these Koffee Klatches was held at the home of Mrs. Lee Allen, second vice president, on Sept. 14. Those attending were Mrs. K. M. Boulter, Mrs. Jack Dean, Mrs. Z. C. Renfro, Mrs. R. J. Setting, Mrs. George Stevens, Mrs. Barton Tatum, Mrs. Robert Waddell, Mrs. Robert Kerber, Mrs. B. F. Townsend, and Mrs. William Sturgis.

Also co-ordinators from the Torrance Woman's Club were invited. They are Mrs. L. A. McCoy, Mrs. W. O. Clausing, and Mrs. A. R. F. Ewalt.

Each of the girls attending the first Koffee Klatch will ask eight juniors to come to her home for coffee. In this way each member will have attended one Koffee Klatch.

BEEMANS RETURN FROM AIR TRIP

Dr. and Mrs. John W. Beeman and daughter 'Janel, of 1518 El Prado Ave., recently returned from a 12-day trip across the country.

In their private plane, the localities flew first to Chicago to attend the International College of Surgeons Convention, then on to Washington, D.C. where they visited their son, Jack, who is enrolled at the George Washington Medical School.

On the way home they stopped in Texas and Missouri to visit friends.

MISS CUBIE BOHANNAN
... Plans Wedding

Cubie Bohannan Plans To Marry Lee Daldoss

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Bohannan, 2202 Arlington Ave., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Cubie, to Lee Daldoss of Long Beach.

Parents of the benedict are Mr. and Mrs. Tony Daldoss of McIntyre, Pa.

Miss Bohannan is a graduate of Torrance High School, class of 1944, and currently is employed at Columbia Steel. Her fiancé attended schools in the East.

Although no wedding date has been set, the couple plan to be married next year.

MRS. WILLIAM DeWAYNE DICK
... Exchanges Rings

Nuptial Rites Read At Crenshaw Church

The beautiful Crenshaw Christian Church in Inglewood was the scene of the wedding of Gloria Janetta Willoughby to William DeWayne Dick. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Willoughby, 1609 Elm Ave.; the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dick of Los Angeles.

The bride was lovely in a floor-length gown. The bodice was lace with long sleeves and the full skirt consisted of two layers of nylon over heavy satin with wide insertions of lace.

Her illusion veil was held by a small cap of lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations centered with an orchid corsage.

She was attended by three bridesmaids and a maid of honor dressed in identical ballerina length gowns of pastel colors. Glenda Pemberton was maid of honor and others attending were Diane O'Dell, Rosie Winkler and Sandra Couverley.

Best man was Joseph Tierney, and James Danskin, William Couverley and Mickey Mazzi served guests.

Dr. J. M. Applegate officiated at the double ring rites.

Among the 250 guests attending the ceremony and the reception which followed were the uncle and aunt of the bride—Roy Rogers and Dale Evans. Out-of-town guests also included the bride's two brothers, Capt. A. Henry of the USAF and Richard Henry.

Engagement of Janice Chambers Announced

Engagement of Janice Chambers and Emerson W. Dauncey is being announced today by Miss Chambers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Chambers, 1603 W. 224th St. Mr. Dauncey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Dauncey of Detroit, Mich.

The couple met while both were attending Harbor Junior College. A wedding date has not been revealed.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Narbonne High School, '54; Harbor Junior College, '56, and now is attending the UCLA School of Nursing.

Her fiancé currently is studying to be an engineer at Wayne University in Detroit. While at Harbor, Miss Chambers was affiliated with Theta Chi Omega and her fiancé was president of Kappa Sigma Phi.

MISS JANICE CHAMBERS
... Betrothal Told